

The Forum on Internet Freedom in Africa 2016 in Numbers

 3 Days

 13 Themes

Transparency and accountability of intermediaries, Internet Shutdowns, Connectivity, Creative social commentary, Clickbait in media, Technology for defending human rights defenders, African frame works on internet freedom, Open data and tracking rights, Access To Information, Cyber Violence Against Women Researching Internet Freedom, Costs of internet shutdowns ,Cyber security strategies

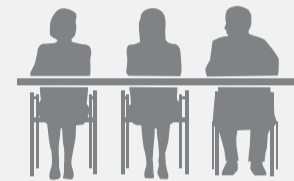

240 Participants

3 Continents

52 Panelists

 50 Travel support recipients

24 Countries

Zimbabwe, Zambia, USA, UK, Uganda, Tunisia, Tanzania, South Sudan, South Africa, Somalia, Senegal, Rwanda, Nigeria, Namibia, Liberia, Kenya, Ghana, Ethiopia, Egypt, DRC, Cameroon, Burundi, Botswana

Representing 51 including civil society, communications regulators, law enforcement, academia and private sector

Researching Internet Freedom

400 respondents

Across 9 countries
Burundi, Democratic Republic of the Congo, Ethiopia, Kenya, Rwanda, Tanzania, Uganda, Zambia and Zimbabwe

4 Research Methods used

-  informant interviews
-  desk research
-  policy analysis
-  website tracking

State of Internet Freedom in Africa 2016 report launched

Growth

2014

 80 participants
 6 countries
 1 day

2015

 200 participants
 19 countries
 2 days

2016

 240 participants
 24 countries
 3 days

10 Forum Partners

SMALL MEDIA

